

PRIVATE PRACTICE SUCCESS AUSTRALIA

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

1. Private Practice Success Australia alerts you to possible options to consider with your business. We are not legal, financial, tax, or other such advisers. You should ensure the options we raise for you to consider will suit your business and you should obtain advice from such professionals such as your solicitor or accountant, as the case may be, prior to acting to ensure the decision you make is best for your business. In engaging us you accept responsibility for your own decisions and release us from any claim that may arise from acting on an option we raise for you.
2. Program* Materials you receive from Private Practice Success Australia are confidential and proprietary, and cannot be used, disclosed or duplicated except within your own company. These materials are unpublished works protected by copyright laws and no unauthorised copying, adaptation, distribution, storage or displays are permitted.
3. Our services are advisory. You bear sole responsibility for the use and implementation of these services in your business. You agree to forever indemnify and hold harmless Private Practice Success Australia from and against any loss, cost or expense resulting from your activities related to the subject matter in this document and in Programs.
4. While Private Practice Success Australia will be providing you with guidance, direction and program materials, such a role is advisory. You will be primarily accountable for producing the results in the Program.
5. Private Practice Success Australia may from time to time, alter the content or structure of its Programs as it considers necessary, but at all times Private Practice Success Australia will continue to provide a high quality service.
6. At the same time as your progress is periodically evaluated, Private Practice Success Australia may be asking you to evaluate its performance under this agreement. If you are not fully satisfied with the services you have received (at any stage) we expect you to let us know, so we can work with you to rectify your concerns.
7. This Disclosure Statement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Australia. Any other countries laws may be different and Private Practice Success Australia takes no liability in any of these other countries outside Australia.

*Program refers to any and all trainings, workshops, events, lectures, public speaking or any other such activities, whether presented in person or online and whether made available in hard copy or electronically.
